EXCITING CONCERT SERIES FOR ALL AGES
The feeling you get hearing a live concert is almost indescribable.
Part of it comes from being surrounded by people who share the thrill you are feeling.
The hush and anticipation as the lights dim...
The power of the down beat...
The emotion as the music engulfs you...
The rush of applause when it is over.
The experience is breathtaking. It’s magical.
Because it is your orchestra.
We love to create those feelings.
The excitement of a new season brings a dynamic vision to the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony and a bold vision that responds to our Patrons and our community.
The KWS and you.
On behalf of all of us at the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony we extend our deepest gratitude for your support, genuine caring and thoughtfulness, and guidance during these past two unexpected seasons.

JOIN US for an extraordinary experience in our 2022-23 season.

2022-23 Season Packages Snapshot

We are sincerely honoured to present to you our 2022-23 Season, particularly so after the past two seasons that have been impacted by the pandemic. This season we invite you to be with us as we honour the many traditions we have held for close to 80 years, and embrace the new ways of being with you, and our broader community at large. Together we will experience the pure exhilaration of live concert experiences, that can so touch our hearts and inspire us forward.

ANDREI FEHER conductor
SHAWN MATIVETSKY tabla

JACQUES HÉTU Sur les rives du Saint-Maurice
JORDAN PAL Upwell (KWS Commission)
JOHANNES BRAHMS Symphony No. 4 in E minor

Music Director Andrei Feher opens the 22/23 Season with Brahms’ final symphony, rich in allusions to Beethoven and full of impassioned intensity. The KWS commission of Upwell is in collaboration with Toronto-based composer Jordan Pal, performed by Shawn Mativetksy. The intersections of tabla and symphony orchestra creates a new musical vernacular.

GRIEG & SIBELIUS

SAT OCTOBER 29 8 PM
SUN OCTOBER 30 2:30 PM

ANDREI FEHER conductor
ALEXANDRA DARIESCU piano

BARBARA ASSIGINAAK
Megyaakwaang (In The Woods)
(KWS Commission)
EDVARD GRIEG Piano Concerto in A minor
JEAN SIBELIUS Symphony No. 3 in C major

Romanian pianist Alexandra Dariescu joins Andrei Feher for Grieg’s epic Piano Concerto in A minor. Both large-scale and tender, the piano concerto is contrasted perfectly by Sibelius’s Symphony No. 3, a compact crystallization of ideas from chaos in three movements. The KWS commissioned work Megyaakwaang by Barbara Assiginaak opens this spirited program.

SUN NOVEMBER 27 2:30 PM

EMILIA HOVING conductor
JOSEPH MOOG piano

FLORENCE PRICE Andante moderato from String Quartet in G major

SERGE RACHMANINOV
Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini

NIKOLAI RIMSKY-KORSAKOV
Scheherazade

We’ve packed “1001 Nights” all into one evening with Rimsky-Korsakov’s imaginative orchestral showpiece Scheherazade. Joining the KWS is German pianist Joseph Moog for Rachmaninov’s Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini, a stunning work showcasing brilliant virtuosity. Florence Price’s Andante moderato is the second movement of her first String Quartet, fusing music of Black heritage with European art music.

Suite from Les Boréades

PYOTR TCHAIKOVSKY
Variations on a Rococo Theme

THOMAS ADÈS Three Studies from Couperin

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART
Symphony No. 38 in D major, Prague

Portuguese conductor Nuno Coelho leads the KWS in a program that looks to the past for inspired innovation. Tchaikovsky’s Variations on a Rococo Theme transforms baroque gestures in a romantic way, elegantly expressed by Canadian cellist Cameron Crozman. In the Prague Symphony, Mozart expands on his musical upbringing renovating the idea of what a symphony could be.

ULYSSES KAY Fantasy Variations
PYOTR TCHAIKOVSKY Violin Concerto in D major
VASILY KALINNIKOV Symphony No. 1 in G minor

KWS Concertmaster Bénédicte Lauzière shines in one of the best-loved violin concertos in the repertoire by Tchaikovsky. Kalinnikov is a lesser-known Russian composer who died at an early age but deserves a place among the Russian greats. His Symphony No. 1, written at the end of the 19th century, is full of beautiful, lush melodies and robust Russian character.

DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH Symphony No. 10 in E minor

From first downbeat of the Signature Series finale, the KWS launch into a fast and furious showcase of epic proportions! Ukrainian-Canadian pianist Serhiy Salov bursts with passion in Prokofiev’s ultra-virtuosic Piano Concerto No. 2. Shostakovich’s colossal Symphony No. 10, widely viewed as a portrayal of the composer’s life in Stalinist Russia, has moments teeming with despair that ultimately ends in musical triumph.
Big names. Great shows. And some of the most treasured songs and genres of our time, backed by the lush sounds of your Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony. You’re sure to love it!

ANDREI FEHER conductor
TROUPE VERTIGO circus performers

Andrei Feher leads the orchestra in a circus-meets-orchestra performance. The modern circus company Troupe Vertigo will amaze the audience with their artistry and acrobatics alongside masterpieces of the symphonic repertoire such as Prokofiev’s Cinderella, Tchaikovsky’s Swan Lake and Rimsky Korsakov’s Scheherazade.
For the first time ever, Canadian star singer songwriter Tim Baker will perform a collection of new releases and past hits in a brand new production with the KWS.

A former member of the Canadian indie rock group Hey Rosetta!, Juno-nominated Tim Baker will wow audiences with his unique voice.

The acclaimed Cree Métis Juno Award winner singer-songwriter iskwē returns to the Centre in the Square stage with the KWS for a live performance of the program that entranced digital audiences in 2021. Known for weaving elements of pop, jazz, R&B, and music and movement, iskwē’s inventiveness provides new avenues of expression and storytelling. A compelling experience!

CREATE A LEGACY WITH THE KWS
Consider the impact of a Legacy Gift

A LEGACY GIFT to the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony is an incredible way to ensure music is at the heart of your community, and communities across Canada. Your gift will have a lasting impact on the present and future of the KWS, ensuring it thrives and continues to contribute to the community’s health and well-being for years to come.

Here at the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony, we know that making a life decision like a Legacy Gift is not an easy undertaking. We are genuinely honoured that supporters like you consider leaving a Legacy Gift to the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony Foundation to support the KWS.
